

Role description - Children's Champion

The Diocese of London (and its parishes) is committed to ensuring that all children and young people within our diocese are listened to. The Children's Champion is a key role in ensuring that the voices and needs of the children and young people are heard.

Each Parochial Church Council (PCC) should appoint a 'Children's Champion' who will give children and young people this voice within the work of the parish and is there to ensure the question 'How does this impact on our children?' is always asked. We would recommend that the person fulfilling this role is not the Church Safeguarding Officer.

This is a voluntary role responsible to (parish priest)

Main Responsibilities

- To engage and build positive relationships with children, young people and other members of the congregation and parish.
- To actively communicate with children and young people and ensure that their perspectives and wishes are reflected.
- To raise the profile of their role in the parish by providing information about the activities for children and young people that are available (i.e. articles in the weekly notices / parish magazine).
- To make use of the Children's Charter to develop provision for children and young people within the areas of worship, welcome, nurture and mission.
- Be responsible for asking the necessary questions to ensure the presence, needs and interests of children are recognised and promoted within the parish, attending a PCC meeting at least twice a year in order to achieve this. (One of which should be the meeting at which the safeguarding policy is discussed and reviewed.)
- Work closely and confidentially with the Church Safeguarding Officer and parish clergy to inform / report / discuss any concerns, seeking support and advice when necessary.
- To keep up-to-date with developments in ministry with children and young people in the Diocese by liaising with the Children's Ministry Advisor and Children's Society Youth Project team as appropriate and reading the Children's Ministry newsletter on the Diocesan web site.

Preferred qualities / skills for the role of Children's Champion

- Be a regular member of the congregation, demonstrating a commitment to the parish's work with children and / or young people who shows respect for, and empathy with, children and young people.
- Have the necessary communication skills to be able to speak with children / young people and be able to clearly state their needs.
- Have a child-focussed approach with some experience relevant to the role (i.e. teacher, youth worker, experience of caring for children).
- Be willing to attend training in Safeguarding initially on appointment and then to regularly update this knowledge (at least every 3 years).
